Syvera
“Kathy”
Mclean

Syvera is as resilient as she is passionate. She takes pride in the work she puts out, and it reflects in the way she carries herself. She cares deeply for her teammates and their safety. She is an anchor in our Evisceration department, being a go-to person that's always willing to help develop new hires. Teamwork is a way of life for her. She is observant, steadfast, and seeks ways to make her line better. Outside of work she loves traveling and shopping. We're honored to recognize her for all she does.

Harmony
Jones

Harmony exemplifies what dedication and adaptability look like on the floor and beyond. She has been an integral part of our Food Safety and Quality Department. Known for her strong work ethic, she works diligently to keep operations running smoothly and motivate those around her. Her commitment to quality plays a major role in ensuring we deliver only the safest and best to our customers. Outside of work, she enjoys cooking, staying active, and contributing to her church community. We're excited to recognize her for the outstanding impact she makes each day.
